The School or Group noted above, herein after referred to as “School Group” hereby contracts with CD Resources USA, LLC (“CD-R”) to provide consulting services and licensing for the School Group’s Digital Dance-a-Thon®.

CD-R will bill School Group and School Group agrees to pay a maximum of $1,500 for consulting and licensing: 20% of the first $5,000 collected, 10% of the next $5,000 collected and nothing thereafter. These fees are due within 30 days of completion of the Digital Dance-a-Thon®. For subsequent year Digital Dance-a-Thon® fundraisers the group agrees to pay 10% of the first $10,000 raised to a maximum of $1,000.

The School Group at its option may elect to purchase CD-R’s collection envelopes, prize envelopes, mail-away envelopes and prizes. A Supplies Price List/Order Form is attached herein. The School Group agrees to pay for all print materials ordered within 30 days of the completion of their Digital Dance-a-Thon® or within 90 days of receipt of supplies, whichever is sooner.

Equipment required for running a Digital Dance-a-Thon® (with the exception of televisions) may be purchased from CD-R. The School Group agrees to pay for all equipment ordered within 5 days of receipt of equipment. For School Groups contracting for a Digital Dance-a-Thon®, CD-R will discount all equipment required by 10% with the exception of the Video Game System.

Freight Estimate on Complete System including:

2 High Density Foam Pads	$30
2 DDR Game Energy Metal Pads	$100
2 Cobalt Flux School Platforms	$120

Many groups find it beneficial to start with the foam pads. You can upgrade the equipment if you see the need. The foam pads can then be used as non-interactive practice pads (you don't connect them) or used when DDR travels outside the gym as they are easier to manage than the heavy metal pads.
